Muskoka Community Health Hubs Update

May 22, 2015 Edition:

Wahta Site:

- Wahta Site is open and running full tilt this week. The Wahta Health Hub is open to everyone, and as a reminder we are a short drive away from Port Severn, MacTier, Port Carling and Bala. Drop by and see us!

Port Carling Site:

- Port Carling hosted a community relations event, under gorgeous sunny skies, over the May long weekend. They were able to update and inform the public about the status of the project. The BBQ was hosted by the Cowan Foundation and raised $1,208.
- The Windermere Lions donated their time to BBQ for the event. There was singing by the Minettes and the Musical Combo Linda Lavender with Peter LeBlanc (cello) and Sam Sharkawy (guitar). A special thank you to Chris Kadonoff, Owner of Foodland for their donations and support.
- Recruitment efforts continue for the Nurse Practitioner and Administrative Assistant positions. Ads are in the local paper or available online at:

Mobile Unit:

- The Mobile Unit was the topic of a good discussion at the Community Services Committee at the District on Wednesday. There were lots of ideas generated and interest in the project expressed by Councilor Sandy Cairns, of Gravenhurst and Councilor Peter Cooper of Georgian Bay Township.

Other Committee News:

- This has been a short work week packed with lots of planning, meetings, and document development by the Muskoka Health Hub Implementation Committee. The committee to review this work on Monday, May 25 so look for more official updates and approvals in next week’s edition.
- Health Hub recruitment efforts have been extended through ad placement by Health Force Ontario, Longwoods, York University and Laurentian University graduating classes, and the North Simcoe Muskoka Healthline. Ads will also be placed on Workopolis through the Globe and Mail.
- Muskoka Health Link website is up! This will be your ‘go to’ source for all news and happenings in the Muskoka Health Link.
