

WE ARE LOOKING FOR A DIRECTOR FOR THE MUSKOKA AIRPORT BOARD

The Muskoka Airport Board of Directors is responsible for the stewardship of the Muskoka Airport and for making recommendations for its growth and development.

If you have a desire to influence the future of the Airport and contribute to the governance of this important regional asset in a way that will provide Muskoka with the best air transportation products and services possible, then this is an opportunity for you.

The Board is a “skills based” Board comprised of individuals who can bring the mix of skills, expertise and perspective needed to ensure the responsible, progressive operation of the Airport while also serving the unique and diverse needs of the people and businesses of Muskoka. The following industry knowledge and functional skill categories as priorities for members of the Board:

- Financial
- Tourism
- Organizational Governance
- Aviation Industry (Business Development, Route Development and General Aviation/ Aeronautic Business experience)

A professional Director designation, as well as past Board experience, are highly desired attributes for Board members. Further information can be found in the Board Briefing Document or on the Muskoka Airport webpage.

Applications will be accepted until Friday, October 23, 2020 @ 12:00 NOON with interviews proposed for the week of November 9th.

Interested parties are invited to submit their resume in confidence to Catharine Vickery at District of Muskoka Human Resources via email human.resources@muskoka.on.ca
