

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Who can apply?

For complete eligibility criteria, please see SH-002-2019 RGI Eligibility policy and the SH-004-2019 Tenant Selection policy.

You can apply if:

- You are at least 16 years old.
- All members of the household are legal residents of Canada or refugee claimants
- Total household income does not exceed the applicable limits as defined in the Housing Services Act (HSA)
- Total household assets do not exceed the applicable limits as defined in the Districts' Asset Limits policy (SH-003);
- No member of the household owes money to any social housing provider.
- No member of the household is in receipt of a portable housing benefit.

You will be required to provide documentation clearly indicating your legal right to be in Canada. This may include, but is not limited to, a copy of your birth certificate, landed papers, or documents supporting your claim for refugee status.

When it is closer to the time when you will be offered housing you must:

- Be able to live independently, with or without support services (which you must arrange)

An individual is considered to be able to live independently if he or she is able to perform the normal essential activities of day-to-day living; or can do so with the aid of support services and demonstrates that those support services will be provided when they are required.

I own my own home. Can I still apply?

If you own a residential property that can be used all year, you are required to divest your interest in that property within 180 days after receiving RGI assistance

I do not have an income. Am I eligible for social housing?

You may be required to pursue income from one or more of the following sources:

- Ontario Works
- Spousal Support
- Employment Insurance Benefits
- Old Age Security, Guaranteed Income Supplement, and Guaranteed Annual Income Supplement pension; or
- Sponsorship income under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act.

Failure to pursue income within the required time frame could result in a decision of ineligibility.

When will I be notified regarding the status of my application?

You will receive written notice informing you whether your application is complete or not.

If it has been determined that your application is not complete, you will be informed what additional information is required to complete the application. You will also be given a time period in which to submit the required information or documentation.

What should I do if information or my situation changes after I submit my application?

If there is a change in any of the information that you provide, you are required to notify our office, in writing, within 30 days of the change. You will be notified if additional documents or information are required.

Applications will not be processed without copies of birth certificates or landed immigration status for all members on the application

Can I choose where I want to live?

Yes. When you apply for housing, you will be asked where you want to live. You can choose one or many locations. Your name will be added to the waiting list for each location where you are eligible.

How long will it take for me to get a unit?

The length of time before a unit comes available will vary depending on the locations you choose. It will take some time because of the small number of vacancies.

Do I get to pick what size unit I want?

You can indicate what type of unit you want to live in. However, your choice must fall within a range of unit sizes that is determined by the occupancy standards policy (SH-005).

What happens while I am waiting for housing?

It's important that you keep your file up to date. You must notify us within 30 days if any of the information you provide in this application changes, for example:

- You change your address or phone number
- You want to live in locations other than those you chose on your application
- The number of people in your household changes
- The contact person on your application changes

We will send you a letter or contact you at least once every 24 months. Your name will be removed from the waiting list if we cannot contact you.

We will do a more comprehensive income verification process prior to making you an offer for housing.

How are people chosen for housing?

The system for selecting households is based primarily on date of application. Special priority may be given to your application if you are living with someone who threatens your safety or the safety of other household members, deemed to be "Medically Urgent" or if you are homeless.

How will I be contacted for an offer?

Since units are rented promptly, housing providers require a daytime telephone number so they can call you when a unit becomes available. If you cannot be reached during the day, please provide a telephone number of a contact person who can be reached during the day so they can pass on the message to you. If we are unable to contact you within 48 hours an offer will be made to the next applicant on the list.

How much rent can I expect to pay?

Generally, rent-geared-to-income is based on 30% of your adjusted family net income according to your Canada Revenue Notice of Assessment, or if you are receiving assistance from Ontario Works or the Ontario Disability Support Program, a social assistance rent scale.

What if I want a market unit?

Housing providers who have market units maintain a separate waiting list for these units. If you are interested in obtaining a market unit, please contact the housing provider directly.

What if I need a special type of unit?

Some housing providers have wheelchair accessible units or units where support services are provided. If you require a unit with accessibility features, please complete Section 6 carefully.

Tenants who enter into leases after January 1, 2018 will not be permitted to smoke in the rental unit.
